WEDNESDAY EVENING, DEC. 4, 1901

LOCAL MATTERS

Fun rises tomorrow at 7:02 a. m. and sets at 4:38 p. m. High water at 1:06 a. m. and 1:42 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair and continued cold tonight and Thursday; brisk northwesterly winds, diminishing.

SHOOTING AFFAIR.—Ernest Marks, of Westmoreland county, recently made some disparaging remarks concerning a young lady of that county. Last night five young men of the neighborhood went to Marks's house to punish him. He opened fire upon them, killing W. P. Taylor and wounding J. Q. Smith and Wm. H. H. H. The latter has caused great excitement in Westmoreland county and the wounded men have been sent to Washington on a steamer for surgical treatment.

PERSONALS.—Mr. Joseph Wilmer has resigned as proctor of the Episcopal Theological Seminary and High School near this city and has returned to Baltimore. His position has been filled by the appointment of Mr. Richard Stuart of King George county. Miss H. Henderson, of Alexandria, is the guest of the Misses Chesley.—[Fredericksburg Star.]

Rev. Dr. R. R. S. Hough, a retired minister of the Methodist Church, and formerly of this city, is quite ill at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. J. F. Brown, in Fredericksburg. Miss Carrie Lyons has returned to her home on Park street after a visit to Alexandria. Miss Herbert of Alexandria is a guest at Capt. J. H. Rives's University.—[Charlottesville Progress.]

Mr. C. W. Moore has returned from a gunning trip in Fauquier county with an abundance of game.

Mr. George A. Apple continues ill at his home on King street. His sister, Mrs. C. H. Overmyer, of St. Louis, is here.

Cousins Louis Brill continues quite sick at his home on Pitt street.

Gen. W. H. Payne and Mr. Leigh Robinson were in the city today on legal business.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—George Masco Council, No. 1718, Royal Arcanum, met last night at Pythian Hall, on north Pitt street, and elected the following officers to serve for the ensuing year: J. A. Stoutebarger, Regent; George H. Schwab, Past Regent; Isadore Brown, Vice Regent; W. F. Baker, Jr., Treasurer; Thomas H. Fegan, Secretary; M. J. McFarland, Collector; T. J. Pettey, Orator; C. M. Schwab, Chaplain; Jude Ayres, John J. Nugent, Walter; Percy E. Cliff, Sentor; S. Edward Beach, Gardner L. Booth, and C. J. W. Summers, trustees. A. H. Penn was representative delegate to the Grand Council, which meets in Richmond next April, with George H. Schwab as alternate. A number of members of Alexandria Council were present. After the meeting a smoker was held.

DEFECTIVE SPOUTING AND GUTTERING.—The heavy and continued rain of yesterday caused no material damage in this city, although some trouble and inconvenience was experienced, much of which was occasioned by defective spouting and guttering, especially conduits from houses to the street. This resulted in many instances in the flooding of pavements and cellars. Mayor Simpson, realizing that much discomfort could be avoided if house owners were more careful, instructed the police to notify all delinquents that they must rectify all such defects on their premises. Puddles of water formed on all pavements where bricks are missing, and the law requires property owners to have the same repaired.

OPERA HOUSE.—Phrenologically speaking, your bump of mirthfulness will increase in size if you will witness "A Breezy Time," at the Opera House, tonight. A man who is imbued with jolly never can fear any derangement of the brain, nor worry himself about his longevity, as it is an acknowledged fact that mirthfulness will produce long life, besides bringing out the better qualities of the inner man. Amusement can be obtained by witnessing that unequalled bunch of laugh-makers—"A Breezy Time Company"—tonight.

CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE CITY.—Judge C. E. Nicol presiding.—A. H. Ma. Kin, vs. the Southern Railway Company; suit for damages for alleged injuries sustained by reason of frost bite; motion to stay proceedings until costs of a former similar suit brought in Washington and which was decided against plaintiff had been paid; motion overruled and this and four other similar cases will come up at the next term of the court.

BOY AND HORSE MISSING.—Foley Sisk, who lives near Seminary Hill, while in Washington yesterday hired a colored boy to ride a sorrel horse from his stables in Alexandria county to the Alexandria ferry. The lad is alleged to have started with the horse, but has failed to arrive at his destination with the animal. The Washington police have been notified to look out for the boy and the sorrel horse, as they are supposed to be in that city.

THE WEATHER.—The rainy weather of yesterday passed away during the night and this morning broke cold and clear. About seven o'clock last night the sky became clear, but remained so but a short time and more rain followed. Later the wind came out fierce and cold from the northwest and raged throughout the remainder of the night. Considerable ice formed.

CONCERT LAST NIGHT.—The concert given in Christ Church Parish Hall last night was, as had been anticipated, largely attended, and proved quite a successful affair. All those who participated, including several Washingtonians, together with a large aggregation of local talent, acquitted themselves in a very creditable manner and the entertainment was greatly enjoyed.

MARRIAGE.—Mr. S. S. Hopkins, of this city, and Miss Annie Troy, daughter of Capt. T. O. Troy, of Annapolis, were married at the latter place today. Mr. Hopkins is a well known jeweler of Alexandria.

A marriage license was issued in Washington yesterday to James T. Armstrong of this city and Catherine A. Kearns, of Baltimore. A marriage license was issued in Baltimore to William W. Whitehead (widower), of Washington, and Clelia Lee Deaton, of this city.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY.—Take LAXATIVE BROMO-QUININE TABLETS. The money if it fails to cure, E. W. GIBSON'S signature is on each box, 10c.

POLICE COURT.—There was but one case for trial in the Police Court this morning—that of a negro named Sandy Hale, who was charged with drunken and disorderly conduct and with resisting officers. About twelve o'clock last night the police were notified by telegraph that a negro was terrorizing passengers on a Southern Railway train on its way from Washington to this city. Officers Smith and Gill repaired to the depot and when the train arrived boarded it. The accused was quiet when the train stopped and the conductor being unable to leave it and go to the station house to swear out a warrant, the officers were puzzled as to what course to pursue, as they had witnessed no disorder. At this juncture the negro began to curse them and every one else in Alexandria, defying the entire body politic. This was all the evidence necessary, and the officers seized the belligerent. The negro resisted arrest and attempted to assault his captors, when Officer Smith dealt him a blow on the head with his stick which brought him to his senses. The Mayor fined him $5 and in default of payment he will be placed on the chain gang. Hale is from Connellsville, Pa.

UNION DEPOT.—As was stated in the Gazette, the location of the new union depot proposed to be built in Washington was the subject of an important conference in the room of the Senate committee of the District of Columbia yesterday. Mr. H. A. Cassatt, president of the Pennsylvania Railroad, was present, as were also Senator McMillan, chairman of the District committee, and Mr. Burnham, chairman of the park commission. Mr. Cassatt, after a general discussion, appeared to view quite favorably the proposition, which has been put into form by Mr. Burnham, for the location of the union station north of Massachusetts avenue and east of North Capitol street. Senator McMillan will draw up a bill which he will shortly introduce in the Senate amending the railroad bills passed by the last Congress, providing for the elimination of grade crossings, and so forth, and the improvement of the terminal stations of the Pennsylvania and Baltimore and Ohio railroad companies. This bill will be drawn in relation to the proposed Massachusetts avenue site.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS.—Josephine, the four-year-old daughter of Mr. Wm. Clark, died at her parents' residence, No. 111 Franklin street, last night. The funeral of the late John Stephenson whose death occurred at Staunton on Sunday took place from the residence of Mr. Harry Hentzmoos, on north Royal street, at 10 o'clock this morning. Rev. Mr. Regester, of the M. E. Church South, conducted the services.

COMMITTEE MEETING. The committee on Finance met last night, and after transacting no business of general interest.

The committee on light met last night and audited accounts, etc., but postponed action on other matters.

TAX SALE.—The property delinquent for city taxes was offered for sale in front of the City Hall building this morning. Before the time of sale many delinquents had retailed and the property sold was bought in by the city.

Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets the remedy that cures a cold in one day

How to Cure Croup.

Mr. R. Gray, who lives near Amelia, Duches county, N. Y., says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best medicine I have ever used. It is a fine children's remedy for croup and never fails to cure." When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has developed, it will prevent the attack. This should be borne in mind and a bottle of the Cough Remedy kept at hand ready for instant use as soon as these symptoms appear. For sale by Richard Gibson, druggist.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

A meeting of the Board of Fire Wardens was held last night, but only routine business was transacted.

It is stated that Mr. Louis E. Smoot is having plans prepared for the building this winter of a large sand and gravel-digging machine for use on the Potomac.

In a well-contested game the Corcoran Cadets basketball team, of Washington, last night defeated the Alexandria Light Infantry team by a score of 13 to 7. The game was played in Armory Hall. A large number of spectators were present.

The trial of Samuel Thompson, colored, indicted for a criminal assault upon Virgil Smith, a twelve-year-old colored girl, which was commenced in the Alexandria County Court on Monday, is still in progress. Examination by the defense of Thompson's alleged victim occupied the entire day yesterday and she was again on the stand today. As there are over forty witnesses to be examined, the case will probably consume several days more.

Sheriff Leachman, of Prince William county, has offered a reward of $50 for the recovery of a bay horse which was stolen from the stables of William Metzgar, near Woodbridge, last week.

The semi-annual election of officers of the Knights of Macedonia last night resulted as follows: G. E. King, commander; D. C. Grillo, lieutenant; commander; W. E. Hume, chaplain.

In the Corporation Court today Judge Norton granted an amendment to the charter of the Willard Hotel Company, increasing its capital stock from $100,000 to $240,000.
